particularly Yamuna, Ganga, Ghagra, Saryu, Tamsa and Gomti of Uttar Pradesh and Delhi;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) if not, the reasons therefor; and

(d) the steps taken by Government for regular desilting of all the major rivers of the country with a view to control the frequent recurring of floods?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (MS. BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY): (a) As of now, the Government of India have not formulated any National Action Plan for desilting of the major rivers in the country.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) and (d) Flood Management being a State subject, flood control schemes including desilting of rivers to check floods are planned, funded and executed by the State Governments themselves out of their own resources and as per their own priorities. The Central Government renders assistance that are technical, catalytical and promotional in nature. The Government of India have however recently set up a Committee to Study the problem of silting in rivers.
